DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of 1952, respectfully dedicate our yearbook to Barbara Harrington, our classmate, who was confined to her hospital bed and was unable to attend her senior year at Leominster High School. We all sincerely hope for Barbara's quick recovery.

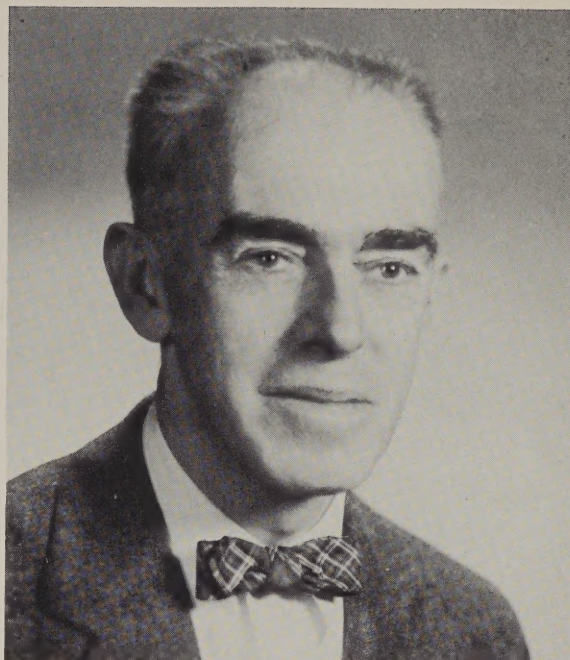

"Capt. Henrick Kurt Carlsen's epic struggle to save the Flying Enterprise filled our newspapers with an inspiring story of courage beyond the call of duty, of single-minded determination to save property which had been entrusted to him, and of humility before his fellowmen and God.

"He is devoted to his family. He will not capitalize on his fame. He simply wants to do well the job for which he was trained. A slight man physically, he looms high in stamina and courage.

"When news of corruption makes us say, 'What's the use of going straight? I might as well cheat a little; everyone else does!', we can remember that the world is full of big and little 'Capt. Carlsens', each trying to get his own particular Flying Enterprise into port, each one trying to make his section of the world a little better for his having lived in it.

"We hope that L.H.S. has given you a little of the courage, honesty, and humility exemplified by Capt. Carlsen."

This message from our principal, Mr. Davis, is typical of the guidance he has given us during our three years on the "Hill." As a whole, we offer our heartfelt thanks.

MR. DAVIS

To Judy: Let's make steel heads for tympani! Good luck Dwight Davis

The success of the Class of '52 is due to the understanding and guidance of our class advisors, Miss Lucia Piermarini and Charles F. Spear.

Class History

Because of the wonderful co-operation of its members and leaders, the class of 1952 was a success in all its undertakings, such as proms, assemblies, plays, picnics, and dances. Chosen as officers for our sophomore year were James Stevens, president; Rene Comeau, vice president; Jean La Fortune, secretary; and Curtis Lanciani, treasurer; junior year Chester Fantozzi, president; Barbara Amadio, vice president; Jean Cragin, secretary; and Curtis Lanciani, treasurer; senior year John O'Donnell, president; Rene Comeau, vice president; Jean Cragin, secretary; and Roger DesRosiers, treasurer.

Sophomore Party, 1949

The first major event that greeted the class of '52 at L.H.S. was the Sophomore Party, which was given for us by the class of '51 on November third. The juniors had done everything possible to make this party a memorable one. Prizes were awarded for the best dancers, and entertainment was furnished by the juniors. Eddie Davis and his orchestra supplied the music. The newly arrived class of '52 enjoyed themselves and got to know the upper classmen better.

Winter Carnival

During the week-end of February 17, 1950, the annual Winter Carnival was held. The main event was the sculpturing contest, which the class of '52 won.

The winning entry was "Horn of Plenty." Second place went to the class of '50 for their "Cupid." The class of '51 took third place with "Peter Rabbit."

Interclass Plays, 1949

In November of our sophomore year, the annual Interclass Play Contest was held. The entry of the class of '52 was "Billy's First Date." The cast was Mary Jane Quirk, John Rogers, Robert Keogh, Nancy Brooks, Eleanor Hazzard, Geraldine Navaroli, Barbara Amadio, and Richard Brown. Charlene Roberts was the student director. The judges truly appreciated our first attempt at the drama because they awarded the class of '52 the first prize.

Horror Day

One of the yearly occurrences on the "Hill" is National Horror Day. On this day all the girls come to school without any of the benefits of makeup. Straight hair, lipstickless lips, and old clothes are the style. The distinction of wearing only one earring was added to the day by the class of '52.

It's fun while it lasts, but it's a good thing that Horror Day comes only once a year.

The Better Speech Contests

In our sophomore year at L.H.S., the representatives from the class of '52 in the Better Speech Contest were Joan Brown and Kathleen Nass. When we were juniors the judges chose Joy Boucher and Eleanor Hazzard to represent our class in the finals of the Better Speech Contest. That year James Stevens was also chosen as master of ceremonies. Louise Leighton and James Stevens were chosen to give their speeches as representatives from the Class of '52 in our senior year. Louise won honorable mention.

Career Day, 1951

On November 14, 1951, the fifth annual Career Day was held. This day was started in 1946 by Mr. Robert C. Laserte, to give the students a better idea of the opportunities in certain vocational fields.

Speakers from many different fields of work, as well as from colleges, addressed the students. They pointed out the possibilities in various occupations. The members of the Student Cabinet served as ushers.

The students greatly appreciate these Career Days, and feel that they have been a help in choosing an interesting career.

French Club

The Christmas meeting of the French Club on December 17, 1950, was held at the home of Joanne Cole. After a brief business meeting, all spent the afternoon enjoying the Christmas spirit. Christmas songs were sung, poems were recited, and games were played. Refreshments were later served, making the entire meeting a complete success and one that will long be remembered by the French Club members of the senior class.

Junior Prom

In spite of the weather our Junior Prom was well attended and was a complete success. The beautiful decorations and Frankie Dee's music provided a gay evening's entertainment climaxed by the grand march. Our officers had a right to be proud of the work of the class.

Sophomore Party

As juniors, we were the hosts for the Sophomore Party held on January 5, 1951, at the high school, with music furnished by the Aristocrats. The assembly hall was beautifully decorated with green and white decorations, which were the colors of the class of '53.

Sophomore Party

As juniors, we were the hosts for the Sophomore Party held on January 5, 1951, at the high school, with music furnished by the Aristocrats. The assembly hall was beautifully decorated with green and white decorations, which were the colors of the class of '53.

Interclass Plays

On May 29, 1951, the play contest was held again. This time our class presented a story of Mexican life, entitled "Sunday Cost Five Pesos." Charlene Roberts was once again student director and did an excellent job. The cast was Ralph Eaton, Mary Jane Quirk, Sheila Picard, Louise Leighton, and Eleanor Hazzard. That year we not only won first prize again, but we also took the two best acting awards. The recipients of the awards were Mary Jane Quirk and Ralph Eaton.

C.M.D.A. Meeting

On November 28, 1951, the meeting of the Central Massachusetts Dramatic Association was held at the school. The dramatic clubs of St. Bernard's, Fitchburg, and Leominster High Schools were represented. Entertainment and refreshments were furnished by the members of the Leominster club.

Thanksgiving Dance

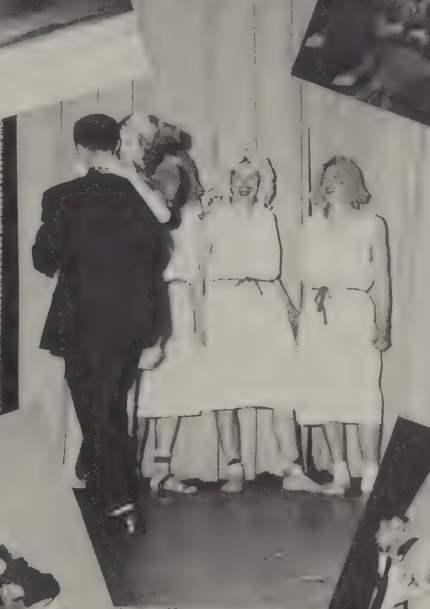

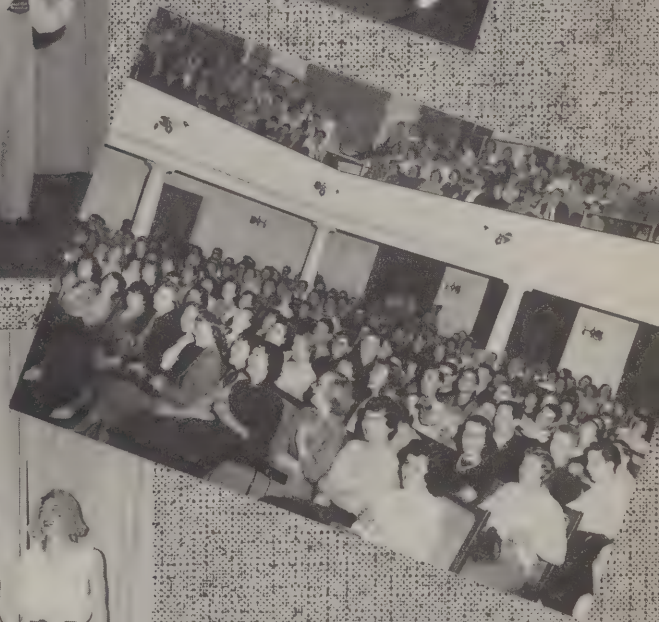

On November 22, 1951, the senior class held a Thanksgiving dance at the Leominster Recreation Center with Eddie Davis's orchestra providing the dance music for the enormous gathering. So many alumni attended that the affair was a re-union as well as a dance.

Senior Assembly

On December 5, 1951, a special assembly was presented by the senior class. The various acts, introduced by master of ceremonies John O'Donnell, included a Barber Shop Quartet, the Andrews Sisters and Bing Crosby, a jalopy full of students singing college songs, the Old MacDonald girls, duets by Nancy Brooks and Betty Panagiotes, and a dance by Eleanor Hazzard. George Dupee accompanied many of the acts on the piano. The hard work of the class in preparing this assembly was more than rewarded by the way in which it was received.

Senior Prom

On December seventh the senior class, led by their newly elected class officers, conducted an extremely successful Senior Prom. Decorations were in the class colors, green and white. After dancing all evening to the dreamy music of Pat Mulvane, the class as a whole went to D'Olympio's Restaurant to eat and dance some more. During the meal a community sing climaxed the whole wonderful evening.

Class Prophecy

The time: 1957.

The scene: JACK O'DONNELL'S mansion in Leominster, Massachusetts.

The characters: JEAN CRAGIN, ROGER DESROSIER, RENE COMEAU, and JACK O'DONNELL.

The setting: The officers of the Class of '52 are planning the forthcoming class reunion to be held at LUNT'S, the STORK CLUB of Leominster.

JEAN CRAGIN, class secretary, now secretary to the oil tycoon,

"HANK" NOVELLI, speaks:

"The Casino must be paying off pretty big, JACK. I noticed you driving a Cadillac convertible!"

JACK: "Yah, I haven't got any gripes. Business with me has always been good.

"What are you and 'BUTCH' doing these days, ROGER?"

ROGER: "Well, 'BUTCH' is producer of the latest Broadway hit starring KENNETH BARTLETT. WALTER KNOWLES is scenery manager. At present, I'm designing clothes for such top actresses as

'SKIPPY' LEIGHTON, ELEANOR HAZZARD, and MARY JANE

QUIRK."

BUTCH: "How're CURT and SHIRLEY, JEAN?"

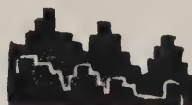

JEAN: "Fine, but I hope it doesn't rain the day of the re-union or they won't be able to get to town."

JACK: "Bet you haven't heard the latest! CRONIN has just been promoted

Third row: Gail Mansur, Sarah Ridley, Barbara Bent, Pauline Gordon, Frances Ciccolini, Margaret Sasseville, Sandra McMinn, Edith Wiles.

MAGNET BUSINESS STAFF

Magnet Editorial Staff

The Magnet Editorial Staff at its weekly meetings prepared the yearbook under the guidance of Mr. George A. Peck and his assistant, Miss M. Elizabeth Colley.

A more interesting Magnet containing more pictures than ever before was the goal strived for throughout the year.

The officers were John Taylor and Nancy Gillis, co-editors; Angelina Scopelliti, assistant editor; Frances Ali, art editor; Jean Grady, special features; Jean Cragin, clubs and biographies; John Bagley, boys' sports; Sheila Picard, girls' sports; and John Julian, school activities.

Magnet Business Staff

The Magnet Business Staff is conducted under the supervision of Miss Kathleen F. Smith. It is the division of the Magnet that settles all the business propositions, solicits all advertisements, and puts the yearbook to press. This staff is responsible for the financial success of the yearbook. The officers were Anita Fantazzi, advertising manager; Georgette L'Italien, accounting manager; Jeanne Lehoux and Clara DiNardo, subscription managers; Jeannette Lehoux, publicity, filing, and mailing; and Jane Parent and Joyce Peterson, secretaries.

Press Club

Press Club

The L.H.S. Press Club was one of the school's most active organizations. Under the guidance of John F. Joyce and Mrs. Elizabeth C. Morrill, the club prepared a weekly edition for the Leominster Enterprise, containing articles concerning L.H.S. activities. This edition, The Senior High Notes, contained sections on girls' and boys' sports as well as assemblies, clubs, and other school activities. The editor-in-chief for the past year was Chester Fantozzi; the secretary was Roger DesRosiers.

National Honor Society

The Frances E. Locky Chapter of the National Honor Society had its first meeting on November 13, 1952, at the Pilgrim Congregational Church. At this meeting the officers and committees for the year were chosen. They were Robert Keogh, president; Charlene Roberts, vice president; Constance Goodale, secretary; and Albert Fontaine, treasurer. The members of the Program Committee were John Julian, chairman, Carolyn McDowell, John Bagley, and Rosemary Burns. The members of the Ways and Means Committee were Frances Ciccolini, chairman, Shirley Brown, Jean Grady, Rosalie Stelluto, and John Taylor.

The group, which is made up of students who have maintained an average of 85% or better in all their subjects during their three years at high school, chose to boost the building program for the new gym wing as their main project.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Fortnightly Club

There were fourteen Junior Fortnightly members from the class of '52. Chosen because of their scholastic ability, these girls were guests of the Fortnightly Club. The speakers at the meetings proved to be very interesting and beneficial to the student members.

Student Cabinet

The Student Cabinet, one of the most important school organizations, consisted of a representative from each home room. It met every Tuesday in the library, under the supervision of Mr. John H. Coburn, advisor. The members discussed school business and problems, such as excessive tardiness among pupils and school assemblies. The officers for the past year were Angelo Celli, president; Joseph DeCarolis, vice president; Elizabeth Panagiotes, secretary; Pasquale LaPosta, treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

A comparatively new club at L.H.S. is the Future Teachers of America. This organization was formed for the purpose of promoting interest in teaching as a career. It took an active part in planning the teachers' panel for Career Day and sponsored several field trips to teachers colleges in Massachusetts: Worcester, Fitchburg, and Framingham State Teachers Colleges. Throughout the year this club had teachers and educators speak about teaching as a career.

The officers for this year were Nancy Gillis, president; Roseann Federici, vice-president; Catherine Royak, secretary; and Patricia Rogers, treasurer. Robert C. Laserte, guidance director, is the advisor.

French Club

The French Club had a successful year which was climaxed by the publication of a cookbook. Its officers were Charlene Roberts, president; Ronald Goguen, vice president; Angelina Scopelliti, secretary; Jean Cragin, treasurer; and Mrs. Miriam L. Bucknell, faculty advisor.

Public Speaking Class

Public Speaking Class

The Public Speaking Class, under the able direction of Miss E. Lillian Ricker, has had one of its most active years. Because there was no Dramatic Club during the year, the class voted to become a member of the Central Massachusetts Dramatic Association, to which the Dramatic Club had previously belonged. In November the class was host to the Association, and a variety show was presented.

This course helps the poor public speaker overcome his difficulties and gives the better speaker a chance to develop his talent. The officers were Sarah Ridley, president; Carolyn Whitcomb, vice president; Jean Cragin, secretary; and Ann Arnold, treasurer.

Debate Club

A new club on the "Hill" this year was the Debate Club, formed by Miss E. Lillian Ricker "to help each member to learn to express opinions carefully arrived at by an examination of the evidence."

The club met every week during activities period and held either a Forum or a Formal Debate. During the year the members took a trip to the Middlesex School in Concord, Massachusetts, to the annual Debate Clinic and to the American International College at Springfield, Massachusetts, for the Model Congress, where they participated in a forum with the Debating Club of Fitchburg High School.

The officers were Curtis Lanciani, president; Samuel Rifkin, vice-president; and Nancy Brooks, secretary-treasurer.

Radio Club

Book Club

Radio Club

The Radio Club met twice a month at the WEIM studios in Fitchburg. The club included students from Leominster, St. Bernard's, and Fitchburg High Schools. Every Saturday morning a representative from each of these schools participated in the programs "High School Highlights" and "High School Juke Box." Lectures on the various phases of radio broadcasting were given by members of the WEIM staff at the meetings. The highlight of the year was Radio Club Day, in June. On that day the members of the club managed all of the station's programs. Sandra McMinn, of L.H.S., was elected secretary of the club.

Book Club

This year a new club was formed under the able direction of Miss M. Elizabeth Colley. It was made up of a group of people who like to have good times reading and talking about books.

At the fall meeting Miss Leta Wedge spoke on travel books. During other meetings members gave book reports and led discussions. In the spring the club visited the homes of the literary people of Concord.

The officers were Joanne Cole, president; Samuel Mascitti, vice president; John O'Donnell, treasurer; and Jeanette Bouchard, secretary.

Ski Club

The Ski Club, one of the most popular clubs at school, is in charge of all the winter sports activities on the hill. This year it took in skating and tobogganing enthusiasts as well as skiers. After many years of hoping and planning, the club spent a week-end at a popular ski resort in Vermont. Miss Patricia R. Becrelis and Mr. Charles F. Spear, advisors to the club, presided over the monthly meetings which were often held at the Leominster Ski Tow. The officers for the year were John Julian, president; Normand Letarte, vice president; Francis Ciccolini, secretary; Ronald Morey, treasurer.

Choral Club

This year the Choral Club was open to all three classes and had a very large membership under the direction of Miss Elinor Driscoll. The club met during activities period to join in group singing and to further and encourage choral singing in high school.

Miss Driscoll, with the assistance of some of the Choral Club members, organized the Thursday morning "sings," which were enjoyed by the student body.

Bowling Club

Roller Skating Club

The Roller Skating Club, another new club formed last fall, consisted of sophomore, junior, and senior girls. Every Monday afternoon the girls went to the Whalom Rink to have fun and free instruction in the art of roller skating. Miss Becrelis formed this club to give the girls lots of fun and enjoyment.

Bowling Club

As the ball went rolling down the alley, many girls had the fortune of calling out, "Strike!" or, "Spare!" The members of the Bowling Club rolled weekly matches.

At the end of the season, the teams from each class that had the highest scores played each other for the championship.

TAC Executive Board

Camera Club

TAC Executive Board

The TAC Executive Board supervised the weekly dances held by the Teen Age Canteen on Saturday nights throughout the year, organized the parties held on the Saturdays preceding holidays, and aided the Ski Club by holding the annual Ski Ball on January 19, 1952.

Officers were John Taylor, president; James Stevens, vice president; Rosemary Burns, secretary; Barbara Amadio, treasurer; Nancy Gillis, assistant treasurer; and Martin H. Burns, adult advisor.

Camera Club

The active group of "shutter bugs" seen around school is the Camera Club, which is supervised by Everett C. Donnelly. Their objective is to learn how to operate projectors and to understand the mechanism of cameras. During the meetings, which were held in Room 18, these enthusiasts developed, printed, and enlarged films, ran slide films, and learned how to operate a tape recorder. Many of them have been seen throughout the school taking informal snaps of students and teachers. The officers for the year are as follows: Robert Frazer, president; Blair Osborne, vice president; William Dietsche, secretary; John Rogers, Jr., treasurer.

Seventh row: David Henault, Glen Stuck, Ernest Sawin, John Ridley, Stephen Douglas.

Orchestra

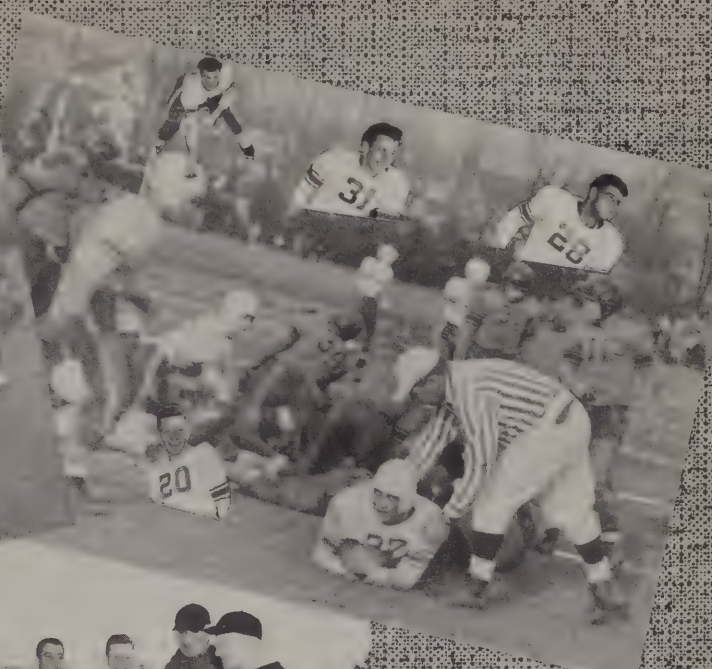

The orchestra group met twice a week during school hours under the direction of J. Richard Sutcliffe. The officers were as follows: James Stevens, production manager; Barbara Bent, secretary; Robert Frazer, Charles Gage, and Janice Santucci, librarians; and Natalie Whitney, concert mistress. The members of the orchestra entertain in small groups for such organizations as the Grange and the various P.T.A.'s. The orchestra also did an efficient job of playing for the Senior Play and graduation.

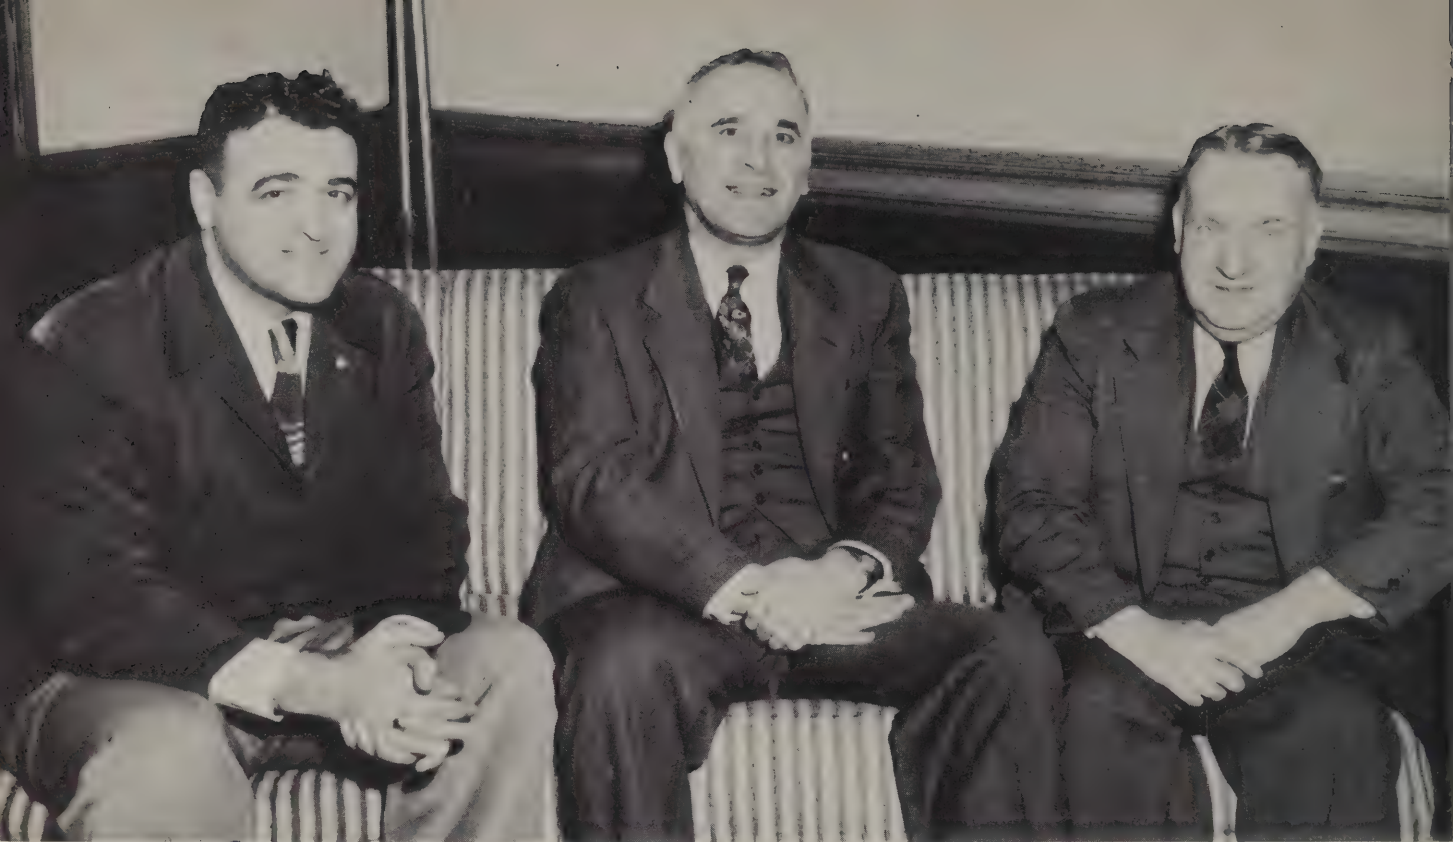

Band

The Band played between the halves of all the football games and participated in several music festivals during the spring. Many small combinations entertained at meetings of various civic and social organizations throughout the year.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach and Athletic Director Charles B. Broderick, Theodore Kucharski, and Carmine Picucci, back with us from the Navy, ably directed the football team to a successful season. Coach Lancelot Fowler and Coach Picucci handled the "A" and "B" squads respectively throughout the basketball season. The baseball team was handled by Coach Picucci while Coach Broderick led the track team. "Doc" Wheeler, who was kept busy during the football season, deserves plaudits for his fine treatments to our injured athletes.

FOOTBALL

The Blue and White ended their 1951 season with a 7 win-2 defeats record, one of the best in L.H.S. history. All opponents excepting Fitchburg and Rindge Tech were beaten with little difficulty. At the Rindge Tech game, the team was helpless; but they came back against their next three opponents with victories. The Gardner game deserves to be mentioned, because in this victory we lost three players by injuries. The loss of these players was the difference between victory and defeat on Thanksgiving. The coaches deserve great praise for developing a powerful squad out of the inexperienced material that they had this year.

BASKETBALL 1951-1952

During the winter the main sport in Leominster is basketball. An L.H.S. basketball team always has a large following and every year Coach Lancelot Fowler has the hard task of producing a team worthy of such a following. This year, as in other years, he has given Leominster a team to be proud of. Although the won and lost column may not be too impressive, all the games were full of action and excitement.

Baseball

Last year's baseball team had a successful season under Coach William Small. With such stars as Jack Daigneault, "Putt" Padovano, "Nip" Mascitti, "Sike"

Tocci, and Sid Brown returning this year, the prospects for Coach Picucci's '52 nine seem very bright.

TRACK

The track team, under the direction of Coach Broderick, was a worthy match for its opponents in the 1952 season. Meets were scheduled with Marlboro, Methuen, Gardner, Fitchburg, David Prouty H.S. of Spencer, Assumption, and a Worcester high school.

The return of Ronald Saudelli, high scorer of 1951, William Palioca, and John Daigneault inspired the team throughout the season.

The cheerleaders this year did a very good job at the football games.

First row: Norma Blanchard, Rosalie Stelluto, Jane Vivo Amore, our mascot, Elizabeth Panagiotes, and Eleanor Hazzard. Second row: Judith Burnap, Nancy Gillis, Margaret Cateletta, and Marion Nisula.

They've served us faithfully and long,
So let's make a cheer to describe them.
Make it so loud and strong
That all will know that we're behind them.

Give them a cheer for the days
When they led us on to fame.
Give them a cheer for the many ways
That they've accomplished their aim.

Let's take them one at a time,
And let's do them justice too.
And let's make a little rhyme
Like they gave for the White and Blue.

Betty is a peppy gal
As she leads our cheers.
She never lacks for a pal
As one is always near.

Rosalie is our senior pet;
A friend to all is she,
And with a smile has always met
Each new complexity.

We have a girl named Norma
Who helps us on our way
As she leads us on to honor
At the field each Saturday.

A girl that's really full of pep
As she leads us on to fame
Is a girl who sure is hep,
And Ellie is her name.

A junior that we all know,
Is Judy first and last
As she jumps up high and low
And leads those cheers so fast.

Nancy jumps so very high
To tell us who is right,
And then tells us the reason why
Our team should always fight.

Marion tells us what to do
As she leads our cheers,
And to us is always true
As she allays our fears.

One that we can't forget
Is Maggie, our junior pal,
And if you haven't met her yet,
Oh Boy! what a gal.

Janie may be smaller than the rest
But she surpasses them all,
If not in size, at least in breath,
'Cause she is "on the ball."

Basketball

The basketball season opened with a bang for the girls of L.H.S. Miss Becrelis scheduled a "play day," which was held at the end of January at the Recreation Center. Scheduled to participate in this "play day" were Gardner, Fitchburg, Lancaster, and Leominster.

The Leominster girls were the victors.

Also on the agenda for their season were varsity tournaments. Then, as usual, homeroom and interclass tournaments were held.

Softball

"STRIKE THREE! Yer out!" This was a familiar cry at L.H.S. during the softball season.

Under the direction of Miss Becrelis, class softball teams played against each other with typical, heated class competition.

A varsity team played against other schools, including Gardner High. This annual clash has become a game to which the girls look forward every year.

Tennis

Spring time is tennis time and at Leominster High many girls took advantage of the weekly instruction offered by Miss Becrelis. At the close of the school year, most of the beginners had learned enough of the game to participate in the tournament with the more advanced players. The increasing number of candidates each year indicates the growing interest in this sport.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

A newcomer to L.H.S. this year is the Modern Dance Club, which was organized at the beginning of the school year by Miss Becrelis, girls' physical education teacher.

The object of modern dancing is conveying an idea or theme to the audience by means of dance. At the first meeting of the club, exercises and simple steps were demonstrated. The more advanced steps were taught later in the school year. As a result of this instruction, the girls learned relaxation, poise, and grace.
